We have much to be thankful for again this year and the Albers family is blessed. As we enjoy time with family and friends, we are reminded to reflect and be grateful. From the Albers family to your family, have a blessed, safe, and Happy Thanksgiving.

Election

This Tuesday, November 5th is Election Day. It has been a typical election cycle filled with emotion and passion across all of Georgia. Elections are a profound expression of our great republic and liberty. We should never take for granted our freedom of self-determination. Running for elected office is very difficult and I have the joys and scars of a few election cycles. Anyone who puts themselves forward to be placed on a ballot will endure tremendous stress on themselves, families, friends and business. I respect and thank everyone who participated in the process.

After the results come in, I will wish a hearty congratulations to those who win. I urge you to be magnanimous, build bridges and serve with honor. If you came up short on votes there are many ways to serve your community. Please call personally to concede the race and find a time very soon to meet personally with your former opponent to wish them well and find common ground. After all, the goal of public service is just that – serving the public.

Thank you again for allowing me to serve you. God Bless Georgia & America!
